“IU Press is one of Indiana University’s strongest assets. In many areas, it is amongst the most highly regarded in the nation and the world. Many of its books are by the finest minds and most renowned scholars publishing today.”
—Patrick McNaughton

“A great Press is a necessary component of a great university, and, now more than ever, a necessary force in the intellectual life of our time.”
—Henry Glassie

“IU Press is a tremendous resource for Indiana University and for the State of Indiana. Its highly professional staff brings out consistently high quality publications that contribute to the vitality of arts and culture in the State and the entire country. I am proud to be associated with IU Press.”
—Thomas Hoback

“IU Press is nothing less than one of the intellectual treasures of Indiana University.”
—Alvin H. Rosenfeld

“If we are going to live responsibly and alertly, we need to know our home ground—its geography, wildlife, history, and culture—and no publisher offers a greater abundance of such knowledge than Indiana University Press.”
—Scott Russell Sanders

“The work done by this distinguished Press is essential to the future of philosophical thought in the Anglophone world. Philosophers everywhere are in the debt of the energetic and imaginative leadership Indiana University Press has shown.”
—John D. Caputo
